The diagram illustrates the assembly of the bridge. It shows a horizontal strip of paper being folded over a vertical strip. A curved arrow on the left indicates the direction of the fold, with the text "FOLD & GLUE" written vertically along the curve. Below the paper strip, the words "Cut Out" are written twice, indicating where to cut. At the bottom of the diagram, the text "Whitewash City" is written on the left, and "ERIC HOTZ © 2000/2003 & 2004" is written on the right.
