EASTI-2 MARAUDER'S SPEAR

EAST03 A Favor Owed

You promised the enigmatic duergar called "The Broker" that you would do him a favor at some point in the future, with no questions asked. This is the beginning of a Major Quest that will be resolved in future East Rift regional adventures.

EAST04 An Invitation

Xomoo'e, a medicine woman from the Ma'heeta, or "Red-sleeve," pride of wemics has offered you a rematch at the game of sava if you choose to attend the gathering of tribes that will take place near the Council Hills in the Eastern Shaar at the summer solstice. This is the beginning of a Major Quest that will be resolved in future East Rift regional adventures.

Note: A single character may have either EAST03 or EAST04, but not both.

EAST05 A Mysterious Trinket

Maybe you just wanted a souvenir, you liked how it looked, or you thought you could get more for it later. Whatever the reason, you decided to keep one of the odd clay bead necklaces that you found in the Sseth shrine, rather than sell it.
