Figurine of Wondrous Power -- Silver Carp

This palm-sized silver figurine possesses the following powers. It can detect poison in any liquid that it is touched to twice per adventure (as per the spell detect poison cast at 1st level, but only affecting the liquid touched); when poison is detected in this manner, the carp will glow green. If placed into water, the figurine will activate, turning into a two-foot long carp that will begin swimming. If the carp is then held aloft and the command word, "Thirst" is spoken, the carp will turn to stone and begin spouting fresh, pure water from its mouth at the rate of one gallon per minute. It can produce no more than three gallons of water (total, ever) in this manner and can only produce water once per adventure.
