Thieves Picks of Stealth

These magical lockpicks are a great boon to any thief or rogue. They do not appear to be made of metal, but instead appear to be constructed of a very dark, hard substance, perhaps obsidian. While they are magical, no means of detecting magic can reveal this fact. The tools confer a +5% bonus to a rogue's open locks rolls. The greatest power of the tools is revealed when they are placed inside their case, and the case is touched to the user's skin. The case magically melds into the individual's body. There the tools safely remain, until the owner concentrates on bringing them to the surface. If a rogue is slain while the tools are melded with his skin, the tools reemerge.

The piece is old and exquisite, crafted by a jeweler who signed her name Phantasm. The black beads sparkle with an inner light, and the dragon pendant that hangs from the necklace feels oddly warm to the touch. The Necklace is valued at 3,990 gold pieces.

Earring of Arachnid Control

A tiny black spider dangles from this silver earring. The earring is a specialized version of a ring of animal control. The wearer of this ring may control one giant or 10-40 normal-sized arachnids of any type. This includes spiders, scorpions, mites, and ticks. The arachnids are allowed a saving throw vs spells to resist the effect. The wearer must be able to see the arachnids to control them. Control lasts as long as the wearer concentrates on the arachnids and does not fight. (The wearer may move slowly if doing so does not break the line of sight.) When the wearer stops concentrating, the arachnids are free to run away or attack. This earring can be used for a full turn once per adventure.

Quimby's enchanted gourmet

(Conjuration/Summoning)

Level: 2

Components: V, S, M

Range: 0

Casting Time: 2

Duration: 6 turns + 1 turn per level

Saving Throws: None

Area of Effect: 40-foot-radius of spellcaster

Definition: The fat, food-loving wizard Quimby devised this improved unseen servant magic as a means of providing himself with gourmet meals while studying in solitude or traveling alone. It is a magical force under the control of the wizard, able to stir, carry pots, measure ingredients, cut, garnish, turn hot food while it is cooking, and so on. It is no stronger than an unseen servant, nor more dexterous than its caster, but it can cook without the direct concentration or supervision of the caster, if the menu is a meal the wizard has prepared or has seen prepared at some time. The enchanting gourmet can be dispelled (at will by the caster, and by the use of dispel magic by others), or destroyed by dealing it six points of damage. The material components are the foodstuffs to be prepared, a drop of the caster's blood, a piece of string, and a block of wood of any size.

Note: This spell cannot be shared with any other PC once it is copied into a spellbook. The certificate must be present for the PC to cast the spell.
