Whip of Entanglement

The whip of entanglement looks like any other magical whip. Upon command, the whip lashes forward 10 feet or upward 7 feet to entangle up to two human-sized creatures (as per the spell entangle, cast by a 3rd level caster). The whip cannot be broken by sheer strength - it must be hit by an edged weapon (hardness 2, hit points 3). If the whip of entanglement is severed, it is destroyed.

Reward for the Eagle One

Please mark only one of these, before giving out the certificate. Certificates with the choice not marked are not valid.

 Reward from Procampur and the Eagle

Coin of Waukeen (Value 4,000 gp, Unusual) - This gold coin is about four inches in diameter. It has a picture of Waukeen on one side and her symbol in its reverse. Priests can use the coin as a holy symbol and confers a +1 competence bonus to the save DC for spells it is used to cast (2E: -1 penalty to saving throws vs these spells). It only works for priests of Waukeen.

 Reward from House Bailey

Bailey Pendant (Value 3,600 gp)- This is a specially crafted brooch with a single special power. A contingency spell has been placed on the brooch. If the wearer falls below 10 hit points (and is still alive), he will be completely healed as by a heal spell. The use of the contingency spell is automatic (not controlled by the owner), and will burn out the brooch (so it only works one time).

 Reward from House Jirin

Jirin Mount -- This medium warhorse is of a very fine quality, with maximum hit points. It can be trained to do three tricks. If the PC owner has the Handle Animal skill (2E: animal training proficiency), he or she can teach it two additional tricks.

 Reward from Kiandra Gallastan

Gallastan Heirloom (Value 15,000 gp) - This item has been in the family for several hundred years. It is an intertwined necklace of gold, silver, and platinum. The various strands are encrusted with emeralds, sapphires, and rubies with a large diamond in its center.
