Obtained the following item in the event In An Elven Way

Cloak of Starlight

This cloak is shiny black and can appear as if it absorbs all light. When not in daylight, the cloak will show tiny sparkles on its surface. Under starlight, the cloak confers the wearer vision as if in daylight. When underground with little or no light, the cloak confers Infravision 60' range. Furthermore, there is a 20% chance that if the PC stands still, he will blend in to natural surroundings underground. Any movement ends this. It confers no benefits to those who have infravision naturally.

Scarf of Tears

When worn as a veil, the scarf confers +1 to the wearer's Charisma-related checks. It does not increase Charisma. Also, a white shimmering light that circles the wearer's head can be summoned. The light has a 3-foot radius, enough for the wearer to read by.
