A Bottle of Kuril's Finest

[] []

A blue glass bottle of exceptional wine made from extra-planar grapes. Highly refreshing, each glass functions as a combination potion of Healing and Vitality. There are two glasses in the bottle. One hour after the seal is broken the magical quality of the wine fades.

Rope of Entanglement

This rope works like any rope of entanglement, with one weakness. It does not get a saving throw vs fire. Any magical fire which causes at least 15 points of damage destroys it utterly, whether the one carrying it makes a saving throw vs fire or not.

Staff of the Apprentice

[] [] [] [] [] [] [] [] [] []

This is a staff +2 that has a number of other powers. Its spells effects are at ninth level. The staff holds nine charges and cannot be recharged. Only a wizard of level 6th or less can use the staff.

- For 1 charge: light, detect magic, armor
- For 2 charges:
 - Protection +2 -- This draws the magic from the staff so that it becomes a +0 weapon for the duration. The other powers are still functional. This function lasts for 9 rounds. This effect can be ended early if the caster desires.
 - Striking -- The next blow that lands on an opponent does 10 points of damage. This replaces rolled damage and is cumulative with any strength bonus. This function can not be used while the protection function of the staff is operating.
