Council of Abbots

Layman of Fharlanghn

The Council of Abbots oversees the practice and worship of faith in the Viscounty. With representatives from the dominant faiths present on the Council, their main function is to advise the Viscount, tend to the faithful, and promote worship within the boundaries of the Viscounty. Facilitators of travel and devotees of the open road, those who revere the Dweller Beyond the Horizon only experience true peace when they are on the move. The altar that is Oerth is a wonder to behold, and they strive to see and experience as much as they can.
