

13 Careers

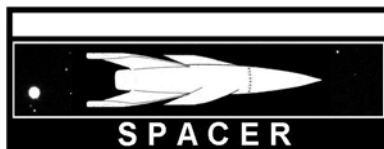

SOLDIER
Someone who serves in an army or fighting force. A fighter. A warrior.

SCHOLAR
One who, through long study, has gained a mastery of one or more areas of academic study. A learned person.

CITIZEN
One who, by birth or other process, owes loyalty to a state, nation, or world. A resident. A civilian. An average person.

SPACER
One who serves in a navy or works on an armed (star) ship or (space) ship.

ENTERTAINER
One who uses his talents or abilities in performance. A person who participates in the arts.

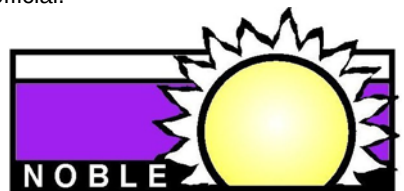

FUNCTIONARY
One who holds an office or a trust or performs a particular function; an official.

MARINE
A member of a specially trained or specially selected fighting force.

CRAFTSMAN
A skilled worker. An artificer; a mechanic; an artisan. A professional with great skill in the manual arts.

NOBLE
Noble. Someone possessing a higher level rank in a political or social class system.

MERCHANT
Someone who engages in the business; a shopkeeper. Especially, the operator of a (star) ship engaged in trade and commerce.

ROGUE
A deceitful, unreliable person; a scoundrel or rascal. A mischievous scamp. A trickster. A traitor, or rebel.

SCOUT
One who travels to unknown territory. An explorer.

AGENT
One with power to act for another, especially for a megacorporation or a government. A spy.