Glass Oil Lamp of the Ancients

First, the hero may take this to any lacerial or oscray to learn how it works. The hero may then render animal fat to produce fuel oil. Hemp or cotton may be used as a wick.

You found this in a ruined village of the Ancients.

Sextant

This heavily corroded instrument is novelty to all but a lacerial or an oscray. An oscray shaman or witch doctor can identify it, but has no use for it. ANY NPC lacerial seeing this item will make it a top priority to get the item to Trueblood, leader of the lacerials, and will barter heavily for it. Lacerials are from outside of Malatra, and recognize that a sextant might help them determine where they are now in relation to their lost home.

Jade Figurine

This figurine looks like a nubari with a fish's head. Grasping this item bestows calm, confidence, and restfulness. The owner is granted immunity to fear and to fatigue, never needing to sleep to memorize spells or recover hit points. One hour of light activity equals one hour of restful sleep. This item is cursed, however, and affects everyone that is around the hero. During the first round of every combat encounter, everyone in the hero's party will miss hitting their opponent – no save. This item may only be destroyed with a remove curse spell. The hero that owns this item will reject any suggestion that the item is cursed.

You found this in a ruined village of the Ancients.
